

“Perseverance”

“Defying the Odds” Doesn’t come close to the riveting story of this family. Time and time again they were told life altering prognosis's only to defeat the odds and overcome the obstacle with grace and momentum. This is a story full of encouragement, hope and perspective. A devastating Autism diagnosis barely makes it into the top 3 stories of medical moments that this family conquered. If you are looking for something to help you keep moving forward, this is the episode for you. With Dr. Shelley Stravitz
